

CAPROC 2025

Dates: Sat 4 October to Mon 6 October 2025

(Kings Birthday Long Weekend Qld)

Fisherman's Beach, Emu Park

Welcome Message

On behalf of the Capricorn Coast and Rocky Outrigger Canoe Clubs, we warmly welcome paddlers, coaches, families, and friends to join us at Emu Park from Saturday, 4th October to Monday, 6th October 2025. Come paddle or spectate along the stunning coastline of the Southern Great Barrier Reef in Central Queensland.

Situated on the Tropic of Capricorn, our race courses span from Emu Park to Yeppoon and the Keppel Islands. These events are designed to challenge your paddling skills while showcasing the scenery of our ocean backyard.

We're fortunate to have secured the King's Birthday Long Weekend for 2025, with a possibility of hosting again in October 2026. This long weekend is shared across our region to encourage broader participation and give paddlers the chance to explore the diverse beauty of North Queensland.

The weekend will feature a range of events, including:

OC6 Short Course races

Small Craft Downwind: OC1, OC2, V1, V3, Ski and Foils

Our Premier Event: the 45km OC6 Changeover Race around Great Keppel (Wop-pa) Island

We encourage all paddlers to make the trip—because, as we know, it's the paddlers who truly make the event special.

We look forward to sharing the water with you this October!

Cap Coast and Rocky Outriggers wish to acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land and sea on which this event will be held and pay respect to the Darumbal and Woppabarra Elders past, present and emerging.

Trailer Parking & Canoe Rigging

Canoes can be unloaded from the trailer parking area of the Emu Park Boat Ramp at the Fisherman's Beach end of Hill Street Emu Park. Canoes can be rigged in the park area of Bell Park. Please bring your trollies as at low tide it can be a fair way to the beach.

Saturday morning priority will be given to unloading all OC6.

Sunday afternoon priority will be given for loading to clubs towing the longest distance as a courtesy to those clubs.

Monday priority will be given to unloading OC1 trailers in preparation for the Downwinder.

Please ensure you book your trailer in by sending an email to roccsecretary@gmail.com to reserve spots or schedule loading/unloading.

Accommodation Options

There is a range of accommodation options, including Backpacking, Caravan Parks, Motels and Resorts, available in Emu Park and surrounding areas to suit the needs and requirements of our paddlers. Please go to Visit Capricorn for further information or please contact us with any questions (<https://www.visitcapricorn.com.au>).

Emu Park

Emu Park is a quiet coastal community town that lies south of Yeppoon and east of Rockhampton. It is part of a pleasant scenic drive from Rockhampton, which includes Emu Park, and heads north along the coast to the Capricorn Coast National Park before reaching Yeppoon.

It is known primarily for its views across to Great Keppel Island, Anzac Memorial Walk and its remarkably beautiful Singing Ship sculpture. When the sculpture is singing, it is downwind conditions for local outrigger paddlers and a well know Downwinder Start/Finish Point for Rocky Outrigger Canoe Club on weekends and their annual Downwinder event.

Location: Emu Park is located 664 km north of Brisbane and 45 km northeast of Rockhampton. It is a short drive from Yeppoon (20km) and Farnborough Beach (22km).
